Crestwood-Norwood, Medicine Hat, Alberta

Envision yourself residing in your dream custom-designed residence, boasting breathtaking views. This exquisite three-level split home showcases extensive renovations and enhancements, including new triple-glazed windows (with updated window screens), a new vinyl sliding patio door, modern flooring, stylish light fixtures, upgraded bathrooms, and much more. As you enter the main level, you are welcomed by a spacious foyer leading into the living room, which is bathed in natural light from the gable windows, further enhanced by a large window that frames a stunning view. This inviting and warm environment is ideal for family gatherings and entertaining, featuring the comfort of a gas fireplace and direct access to the backyard. Ascend to the upper level to take in even more impressive views from the dining and kitchen areas. Experience the practicality of a well-equipped kitchen, offering generous counter space and ample storage cabinets. The kitchen and dining area conveniently lead to a balcony, where you can enjoy captivating city vistas that highlight the property's remarkable surroundings. Additionally, the upper level features a half bath for guests and a flexible area that can serve multiple purposes, whether as a formal dining room, living area, or office/den. The basement comprises two bedrooms, including a primary suite with an ensuite bathroom, along with an additional full bathroom. Notably, large triple-glazed windows throughout the basement ensure that each level, including the basement, offers spectacular views of the property. Step outside to the expansive backyard, which includes a greenhouse, shed, and stunning city views. This outdoor space is designed for versatile enjoyment, perfect for cozy bonfires, barbecues, morning coffee, or simply appreciating the beautiful landscape. The property also provides convenient RV and boat parking, accommodating all your recreational vehicles. Additionally, the oversized single attached garage features a spacious workbench area for storage and hobbies. Located in the charming Craven Place, this residence is conveniently situated near schools, a pool, tennis courts, and shopping centers, making it an ideal choice for your family.
